Re: The United States of America v. Conroy Williams
08 Cr 00690 (GEL)

Your Honor:

REMO ENDORSED

We are writing as counsel to Mr. Williams, the defendant in the above referenced matter. Mr. Williams pled guilty before Your Honor on July 25th, 2008, pursuant to a plea agreement with the government. At the time of the plea we requested an expedited pre-sentence investigation, which the Court granted and the matter was adjourned to September 12th, 2008, for sentence.

On August 11th, 2008, we were contacted by the United States Probation department to schedule an interview with Mr. Williams; the meeting was scheduled for August 13th, 2008, due to the expedited Order of the Court and because defense counsel would be on vacation from August 14th, 2008, through August 23rd, 2008, and the probation officer was unavailable beginning August 22nd, 2008. On August 13th, however, we were denied entry into the MDC because of an unrelated incident at the jail involving several inmates. As such, the interview has been rescheduled until after Labor Day.

Due to the delay in interviewing Mr. Williams for his pre-sentence report, we must request an adjournment of the scheduled sentence date of September 12th, 2008. After conferring with the probation department and the government, all parties would request either the morning of September 26th, 2008, or the afternoon of October 3rd, 2008, if either date is convenient for the Court.
